

Name: _____

CALIFORNIA NATIVE AMERICAN SURVIVAL AND RESILIENCE DURING THE MISSION PERIOD

SOURCE INVESTIGATION

Key Definitions:

TO RESIST: to exert force in opposition

- Synonyms: to defy, to oppose, to fight, to withstand

TO PERSIST: to go on despite opposition or warning; to continue to exist, especially past a usual, expected, or normal time

- Synonyms: to carry on, to persevere

Central Question: Native Americans of California during the mission period: How did Native people resist and persist in the face of extreme adversity?

Original Hypothesis: Based on your prior knowledge, write your first hypothesis (educated guess) to the central question in the box below.

Directions: Next, read each source and decide if the source provides evidence of Native American resistance and/or persistence. Complete the graphic organizer below. Consider whether sources support or contradict your original hypothesis. In the space provided, revise your original hypothesis as necessary based on the evidence you find in each source.

Key Definitions	Relevant Sources	How do the selected sources provide evidence of Native American resistance and persistence? Write pertinent quotes or details below.	Hypothesis Revision: Native Americans of California during the mission period: How did Native people resist and persist in the face of extreme adversity? Note here any changes you would like to make to your original hypothesis.
To Resist: to exert force in opposition Synonyms: to defy, to oppose, to fight, to withstand

To Persist: to go on despite opposition or warning; to continue to exist, especially past a usual, expected, or normal timeSynonyms: to carry on, to persevere
---	--	--	--

Summative Assessment

Directions: Construct an argument (detailed outline or essay) that uses the evidence from the graphic organizer to answer the central question: Native Americans of California during the mission period: How did Native people resist and persist in the face of extreme adversity? Use your final hypothesis as your thesis statement or main idea.